

Contents

6 How to Use this Book

8 Introduction: World History in Overview

10 Maps and Timelines

217 A to Z of Peoples, Nations and Cultures

233 Further Reading

235 Sources of Data

235 Acknowledgments

236 Sources of Illustrations

238 Reference map

240 Index

10 6,000,000–100,000 YEARS AGO The origins and distribution of early human species

14 100,000–11,000 YEARS AGO The spread of modern humans during the Ice Age

18 6000 BC After the ice: human adaptations to a warmer world and the beginning of agriculture

22 4000 BC The spread of farming societies in the Old World

26 2000 BC Birth of the first civilizations in Sumer and Egypt; early farming societies in the New World

30 1300 BC The Bronze Age empires of Egypt, the Mediterranean, Mesopotamia and China

34 1000 BC The Aegean and Mesopotamian Dark Ages; rise of the Zhou in China

38 800 BC Dominant Assyria and expansionist Zhou; colonizing Phoenicians

42 500 BC Assyria, Babylon and the rise of Persia; fall of the Zhou kingdom

46 323 BC Alexander the Great, Carthage and China's Warring States period

50 200 BC The unification of China, break-up of Alexander's empire and the rise of Rome

54 1 BC China's Han dynasty empire at its greatest extent

58 AD 200 The Roman and Kushan empires reach their greatest extents; decline of the Han empire

62 400 Roman empire and China divided; the rise of Sasanian Persia and Gupta India; the Classic Maya civilization

66 500 The fall of Rome and the rise of the first empires of the Andes

70 650 The Islamic era begins; China's Tang dynasty empire reaches its peak; destruction of Teotihuacán

The spread of Hinduism, Buddhism, Zoroastrianism, Judaism, Christianity and Islam to AD 650

76 712 The great Arab conquests reach the Atlantic and the Indus

80 800 The Abbasid caliphate, the Carolingian empire and early imperial Japan

84 907 Demise of the Tang and the Maya city states; the age of the Vikings

88 1000 Fall of the Abbasids; Viking raids in Europe; unification of Korea

92 1100 The Turkish conquest of the Middle East; the First Crusade; the first towns in North America

96 1206 Chinggis Khan unites the Mongol tribes; India comes under Muslim dominion; fall of the Toltecs

100 1300 Domination and fragmentation of the Mongol empire; the rise of Mali and Great Zimbabwe in Africa

104 1400 Ming dynasty China; Timur the Lame; the growth of Ottoman power

Patterns of world trade on the eve of European expansion

110 1492 The world on the brink of European expansion; the Aztec and Inca empires at their peak

The spread of the world's major writing systems to 1492

116 1530 Spain and Portugal divide the world between them; the Ottoman empire at its peak; Mughal conquests in India

120 1600 Continued Spanish conquest of the Americas; the Mughal empire at its peak

The spread of world religions to 1600 – Christianity is the first global religion

126 1650 France becomes the dominant European power; the Manchu conquest of China

130 1715 The Treaty of Utrecht: Britain emerges as a major European power; decline of the Ottoman and Mughal empires

134 1763 Britain becomes Europe's leading colonial power; Qing empire at its peak

World trade on the eve of the Industrial Revolution: British dominance of the global trade network; Atlantic slave trade at its peak

140 1783 Britain recognizes the independence of the USA

144 1812 France bids for European dominance; the establishment of British colonies in Australia

148 1824 The fall of the Spanish–American empire

152 1848 Nationalism and the rise of the nation states; revolutions break out in Europe

156 1861 The US Civil War; rebellions and social change in Japan and China

160 1871 New borders drawn in America and Europe

164 1900 The European colonial empires dominate the world

Migrations in the 19th century: Europe a great exporter of population

170 1912 European colonial expansion; the end of imperial China; the rise of Japan

172 1914 The outbreak of the First World War in Europe

176 1917 The First World War continues; the Russian Revolution

180 1923 The end of the First World War and the Treaty of Versailles

184 1938 The world in the shadow of the great dictators; new government in China

188 1942 The maximum extent of Axis advance in the Second World War

192 1945 The end of the Second World War in Europe and the Asia–Pacific region

196 1950 The Cold War and the rise of anti-colonialism and communism in Asia

200 1962 The winds of change: the European retreat from Africa

204 1975 The world at the height of the Cold War

208 1991 The fall of the Iron Curtain and the break-up of the USSR

212 2010 The shifting balance of global power